STATEMENT

Section 82 Criminal Procedure Act 2011

POL 2150 A 08/16

Statement of: Rachel FIELD Age (if under 18): _____Date statement taken: 12/03/2025 Time: 16:43 pmLocation: Balmoral Police Station, 1-3 Halston Rd, Mt Eden, Auckland.

I, Rachel FIELD, state:

1. I am a sworn member of the New Zealand Police pursuant to section 22 of the Policing Act 2008.
2. I am a Detective in the Auckland Central CIB currently attached to the Family Harm High & Complex Risk Team based at the Balmoral Police Station, 1-3 Halston Rd, Mt Eden, Auckland. My duties include engagement and intervention with people affected by family harm.
3. On 7 November 2024, I was assigned to engage with a female named Melissa Holliman who had allegedly been assaulted by a male named Kaz Fraider early that morning. I now know Kaz to be the defendant in this matter.
4. The defendant had been arrested by Police and charged with multiple offences.
5. On 13 November 2024, I made contact with a staff member at Family Harm agency SHINE, who had also been assigned to engage with Melissa. We worked together to provide support to Melissa. I reached out to Melissa by phone and her daughter responded and facilitated communication. She was friendly and helpful.
6. On 15 November 2024, as arranged with Melissa and her daughter, I went to the defendant's bail address 2/192 New Windsor Rd, New Windsor, Auckland where I facilitated Melissa obtaining some of her personal belongings from the defendant's address.

STATEMENT CONTINUED

Section 82 Criminal Procedure Act 2011

Statement of: Rachel FIELD Age (if under 18): _____

7. Melissa did not speak with me very much or make eye contact, she remained inside a vehicle while her daughter and I facilitated removing the items. She appeared very uncomfortable and upset.
8. On 20 November 2024, I was aware Melissa was attending the Pohutakawa Clinic, Greenlane Hospital for a medical assessment. I received a phone call from Dr Christine Foley to advise me that she had concerns about Melissa's health after completing the assessment and she had on referred her for specialist medical help.
9. On 16 December 2024, I was made aware that there had been a couple of possible breaches of bail by the defendant. I was assigned to interview Melissa and obtain a statement describing the breaches so they could be investigated.
10. On 19 December 2024, I went to the defendant's bail address 2/192 New Windsor Rd, New Windsor, Auckland. I attempted to obtain Melissa's mobile phone and personal documents. The defendant handed me a stack of documents and said that was all he had. He stated he did not have possession of her mobile phone or know where it was.
11. At the direction of Meredith Connell, the Crown, I also conducted bail variation suitability checks with the defendant. Please refer to separate jobsheet for these enquiries.
12. On 20 December 2024, at 9:35am, Melissa and I met at a SHINE office and discussed the matters. Melissa provided me with information but was unable to sign a statement at that time as she had to leave for a medical appointment.
13. On 15 January 2025, Melissa and I met at my office in Balmoral, 1-3 Halston Rd, Mt Eden, Auckland to obtain a signed statement for the aforementioned breaches of bail. Melissa declined to provide a statement.
14. On 13 March 2025, I spoke with Melissa via text message to inform her the defendant had been arrested for a breach of bail.
