Section 82 Criminal Procedure Act 2011

Statement of: Constable Joshua TAYLOR Age (if under 18): _____

8. I arrived at the No.9 Hotel at about 6:45am. I walked through the entrance and was guided by a staff member towards the downstairs kitchen/dining area. I looked out into the outside smoking area and saw two females. I recognised one of the females as being BIRD due to the photograph I had viewed.
9. I approached BIRD and could visibly see blood drops over her clothing and blood running from her left ear. She mentioned pain to her left ear and turned her head so I could view it. I observed fresh blood inside of the ear.
10. BIRD advised me she suffered from seizures, so I called for an Ambulance over the police radio.
11. I continued to speak with BIRD, and she advised me her partner had strangled her, hit her, kicked her and boke a number of her belongings including a laptop and jewellery.
12. I informed Constable FALLEN of what BIRD had told me.
13. At about 7:07am, I was shown into the hotel room where BIRD stated she was staying and where the assault had taken place.
14. I began taking a series of photographs of the scene, being Room 110. I observed pieces of jewellery around the room. I took photographs of these.
15. At about 7:18am, I observed a box cutter, which was in the closed position on the floor. I took photographs of the box cutter and seized it as an exhibit. I placed it inside of an exhibit bag which I placed into the back of my patrol vehicle.
16. At about 7:35am, I continued taking photographs of the scene. I started on the 1st floor where BIRD's room was located, down to the ground floor and along the road to the males vehicle, which was still parked on Manukau Road, Epsom.
17. At about 7:51am I began taking photographs of the damage to BIRD's property, this included jewellery, a laptop and an iPad. I took further photographs of Room 110 and observed blood on the duvet, which was on the floor.
